Our First Newsletter For A Business That Has Been Operating For 20 Years!

Welcome to a newsletter that has been twenty years in the making – a brief history of our company seems appropriate here.

It all began in 1982, when a 21-year old Oris Squadrito began his training in the art of being a chauffeur. This included a stress on old-school customer satisfaction and service from the masters of the "Old Guard" of chauffeuring that made an indelible imprint on him. Never forgetting these lessons, over the next three decades Oris always strove to master and improve the customer service he offered to his passengers while bringing his own personality to the business.

SPECIAL OFFER!

" We've partnered with the fantastic restaurant La Trattoria on Norton – quite simply the best Italian food outside of Italy – to offer you a 50% discount Monday through Thursday! "

We spend a lot of time thinking about how to reward our loyal customers, all of you who have used us year in and year out as well as our new friends who have chosen us over the competition. We've come up with something really fun we'd like to share with all of you!

La Trattoria offers traditional Italian fare made by experts – bring your appetite and your sense of adventure and fun. It's a warm, welcoming place that mirrors the hospitality of Chef Giovanni Spinazzola, one the premier chefs in Sydney's restaurant game and recipient of a Chef's Hat at the Bistro Moore Paddington, awarded in both 2006 and 2007, which was also awarded the 'best pub restaurant' award in New South Wales and Australia, as voted by the Restaurant and Catering Association.

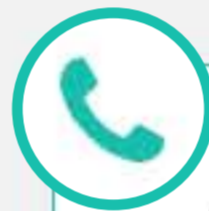

Fresh from that success, he opened his first restaurant with his wife Cinzia in Annandale. La Trattoria on Norton is his latest venture, perfecting his traditional, substantial Italian menu.

Here's how it works: Hire us to drive you to the restaurant. Enjoy the limousine, the professional ride, and an amazing meal, and then we'll drive you home for free! Not only do you get to have one of the greatest meals of your life, you commute to and from it in absolute luxury.

To take advantage of this amazing offer, just give us a call or email and tell us that Oris told you about it, and we'll get you set up immediately!
